CANARY MISSION NEWSLETTER — Aug. 7

FEATURED CAMPAIGN

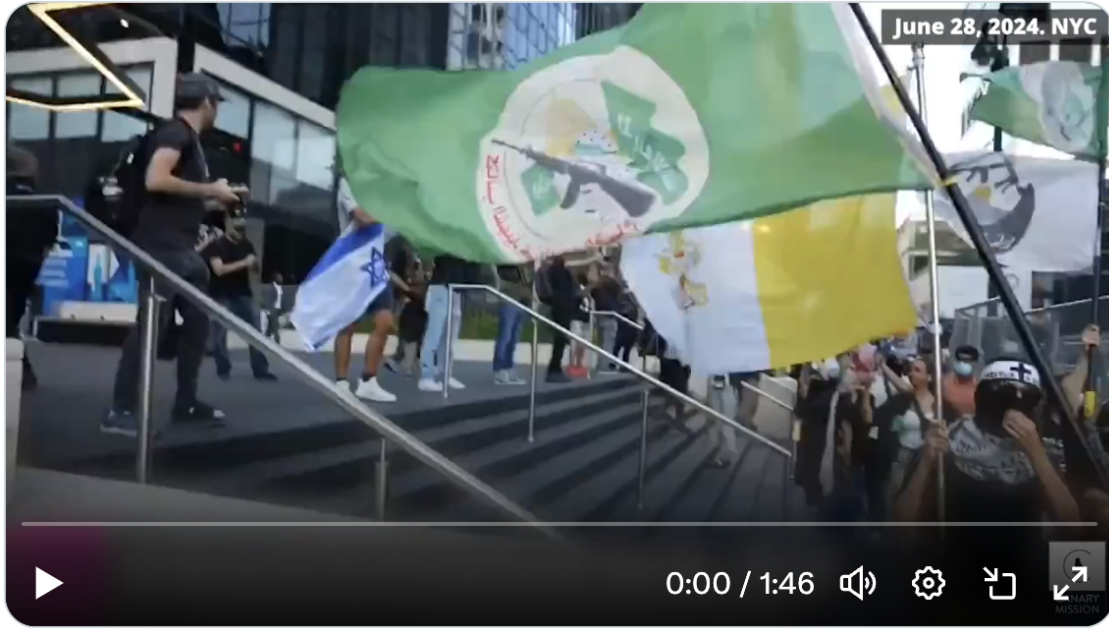

Ramah Awad will be responsible for teaching seminars on "subjects of her choice" to students at UC San Diego. Wonder what that will be?

On Oct. 15, 2023, just eight days after the Oct. 7 massacre by Hamas, Awad helped organize an anti-Israel rally. To the press, Awad said, "I don't think it serves anyone...to be focusing in on the events of this week [without context]..."

FEATURED VIDEO

"We are all Hamas!"

The "anti-Israel" protesters were never just that. Oct. 7 unleashed activists that show us every day that they don't just support a genocidal terror group, they consider themselves PART of it. WATCH

FEATURED POST

The "Intifada crowd" officially owns the streets and highways of Toronto. Surrendered with no fight from the authorities.

FEATURED PROFILE

Kate Sim was fired by Google for her anti-Israel protest. Turns out you can't attack your employer without consequences. Sim calls Israeli women reporting Hamas rape "'feminist' imperialism at its finest." No surprise, she majored in gender studies at Harvard.
