Details of the 'hate speech' bill

Shamefully, only six senators voted against the so-called 'hate speech bill' last week, a bill that we and many others believe to be a direct attack on free speech.

Globalist governments around the world have implemented similar laws designed to stifle your right to question what are usually damaging government policies.

As usual, it's a control measure wrapped up as harm prevention. In other words, a wolf in sheep's clothing.

We've attached three documents on the bill for your information.
