MUTH'S TRUTHS

No Tears for Government Employees: Woes Don't Compare to What Private Sector Workers Suffered During COVID Shutdown

(Chuck Muth) - Well, the "oldstream" fake news media is at it again.

We're being inundated with wall-to-wall, hair-on-fire, woe-is-me stories about all these poor government workers losing their jobs.

Oh, the humanity!

The liberal Nevada Independent wails...

"In Nevada, where the federal government employs nearly 14,000 civilian workers, job cuts by Trump could lead to a slowdown of services everywhere from wildfire management to veterans' hospitals."

The article cherry-picks one guy, Mark Wagstaff – a military veteran, of course, to induce the greatest level of sympathy – and explains how "he's concerned about his ability to survive without a paycheck and is worried he may become homeless."

It's a tired, age-old trick by the media to get you to think that every government employee is "essential" and there's no personnel fat to cut anywhere at any time.
