MUTH'S TRUTHS

The DC Puppet Strings Behind Aaron Ford's Prosecution of Trump Electors

Nevada's electors are trapped in legal limbo because the federal government may have pulled the strings - in Washington's back room, not Carson City's courts.

Here's the plain-spoken version of what's going on and why it matters in Nevada.

Last week it was revealed that more than 2,000 pages of internal documents from the Federal Bureau of Investigation show a sweeping effort by the United States Department of Justice under the Biden administration to target conservative activists, organizations, and even the electors chosen for former President Donald Trump.

According to conservative lawyer Cleta Mitchell, the real goal was to punish Trump and his supporters - not enforce neutral law.

In Nevada, six Republican 2020 electors were indicted by Nevada Attorney General Aaron Ford in December 2023.

But earlier that year, Ford publicly stated there was no state law authority to bring such charges - then changed his mind.

Mitchell argues that the case in Nevada and other states (Arizona, Michigan, Wisconsin) were not really "state" prosecutions.

Instead, she says the FBI and DOJ pushed the agenda and used state attorneys general as proxies.
