BALAT's Statements to Law Enforcement

f. In the NYPD vehicle en route to the NYPD precinct, BALAT, without being questioned by the NYPD officers transporting him, made the following spontaneous utterances, in part and as captured on the transporting NYPD officers' body-worn camera footage: "this isn't a religion that just stands when people talk about the blessed name of the prophet . . . We take action! We take action!"; and "if I didn't do it someone else will come and do it."

g. After arriving at the precinct and being advised of, and waiving, his Afironda rights, BALAT requested a piece of paper and, after being given a paper and pen, wrote the following: "All praise is due to Allah lord of all worlds! I pledge my allegiance [sic] to the Islamic State. Die in your rage ya [sic] kuffar! Emir B." Based on my training and experience, I know that "kuffar" is an Arabic term that refers to "non-believers" or "infidels," and that "Die in your rage" is a slogan used by ISIS and based on a verse in the Quran.

h. Law enforcement officers later asked BALAT if he was familiar with the Boston Marathon bombing, and if that was what BALAT had hoped to accomplish. BALAT responded: "No, even bigger. It was only three deaths."<sup>7</sup>
