FAMOUS LAST WORDS

"Senator Mitch McConnell, 84, has been hospitalized for over a week with no diagnosis and no public appearances—just vague staff statements. This isn't partisan. Feinstein served until she died at 90, visibly diminished. Biden's decline was on national TV. Both parties fail at accountability. When senators can't serve, unelected staff run the show. We need term limits and real mechanisms to hold them responsible." - @MikeBales
