

DAILY NEWSLETTER

Shocking reason broadcast watchdog is refusing to investigate ABC's vile Rinehart sketch

Broadcast watchdog ACMA has revealed why it has failed to investigate the ABC segment calling for Gina Rinehart to be murdered - despite senior politicians agreeing the sketch should be axed.

Read more →

Senior Labor minister calls for ABC to apologise to Gina Rinehart over murder segment

The most senior Albanese government minister to date has said the ABC should apologise for depicting the sodomy and murder of Gina Rinehart, as the national broadcaster continues to keep the video available.

Read more →

Labor's CGT move 'not right' for small businesses as ATO works through change

Labor's capital gains tax moves are not right for small businesses or fast-growing companies, a leading MP declared as the taxation office works through the changes.

Read more →

British expat's brutal take on why immigrants struggle to feel at home in Australia

A British expat who has lived in Australia for 35 years has shared the biggest struggle immigrants face when they try to assimilate, claiming the friendly reputation Australia is known for is a lie.

Read more →

Man charged with allegedly importing Nazi-branded weaponry

A man could face considerable prison time after allegedly importing weaponry emblazoned with Nazi symbols into Australia and making a Nazi salute in public.

Read more →

One easy mistake could lump Australians with a $364 per day fine

Anyone in Australia next week might find themselves slapped with a hefty daily fine for committing one easy-to-make error.

Read more →

Chilling details emerge about 'heavily armed' suspect at Trump golf club

A man allegedly seen creeping around and monitoring “security-planning activities” outside one of Donald Trump's golf courses - just two days before the President’s visit to the same location - has been identified.

Read more →

Coogee shark attack fundraiser tops $550,000

More than half a million dollars has been raised to support Leah Stewart, two months after she was attacked by a shark at Coogee Beach.

Read more →

Driver tragically killed in collision while swerving away from police cars flashing lights and sirens

A driver has been killed in a head-on collision with a truck after swerving away from two police cars under lights and sirens.

Read more →

Meghan's surprising three-word title request revealed

An insider has revealed the very surprising way Meghan Markle requested she be addressed during a professional meeting.

Read more →

Jetstar overhauls cabin baggage rules

Jetstar has announced huge changes to its cabin baggage policy from next year.

Read more →

Reform UK overtakes Labour as 'Burnham bounce' fades

News24 contributor Sophie Elsworth discusses the latest YouGov poll, which shows Reform UK taking the lead over Labour.

Watch now →

‘War of attrition’: Iran simply must be last man standing against US

Foundations of Defence for Democracies Research Analyst Janatan Sayeh says this war for Iran is about outlasting the US in a more expensive campaign and getting Tehran back to the negotiating table.

Watch now →

‘Fiercely anti-Western’: Brutal review of Spain’s Pedro Sanchez’s weak leadership

Anti-Defamation League CEO Jonathan Greenblatt has accused Spain’s Prime Minister Pedro Sanchez of being “fiercely anti-Western” and anti-Israel.

Watch now →

Progress made in US-Iran talks

US strikes on Iran are on hold as President Donald Trump says he's giving the regime one last chance to make a deal.

Watch now →

News24

Want to change how you receive these emails?

Manage your newsletter preferences here or unsubscribe from this newsletter.

Sent by News24, 2 Holt St Surry Hills, NSW 2010 Australia.

News Corp Australia