Frisco ISD taxpayers are paying for a Muslims-only prayer room inside Liberty High School. The Muslim Student Association posted it plainly: the room is “for muslims to pray... and ONLY Muslims will be allowed in.” Two hours a day. A boy may deliver the sermon. A girl may only write it down, just as Sharia dictates.

They are also collecting prayer rugs and counting those donations as school volunteer hours – against the district’s own rules.

In 2017, Attorney General Ken Paxton warned Frisco ISD that a public classroom cannot be reserved for one faith. Officials promised the room was open to everyone. The MSA just posted the opposite.

The MSA functions as a Muslim Brotherhood student arm. First, they establish the club. Then they push for special treatment, including an exclusive prayer room reserved for Muslim students. Eventually, a public school room is treated like a mosque — creating a separate Islamic space inside a taxpayer-funded school.

Governor Abbott and Attorney General Paxton should shut it down now. A public school is not Mecca.
