They named the collapse – then they bought the churches.

Siraj Wahhaj, Mamdani's favorite imam, says 100,000 churches will close this decade. Forty million Americans already left the pews. Those sanctuaries are not sitting vacant. They are being seized, flipped into mosques, and celebrated as conquest.

Then the sermons start. Christians branded as idolaters. Enemies. Christ denied. Annihilation preached from buildings that once held the Cross.

It's time to live Christianity again – show up, fill the pews, and refuse to let the Cross be mocked in silence.
