'This is treason': Watch 'all hell break loose' at U.S. post office located inside a mosque, as fears grow over mail-in ballots

'If you're a police officer, you better get your [bleep] together because people are gonna start turning on you, and it's going to be a very dark day for you if you don't start enforcing the law'

Fraud-fighter David Hoch stands inside a U.S. post office in Plymouth, Minnesota, on Friday, Oct. 23, 2026. The USPS facility is located in the same building as an Islamic community center.

David Hoch, the heroic fraud-fighter who helped journalist Nick Shirley expose massive corruption at Minneapolis daycare centers and testified before Congress in January, is now sounding the alarm after he was kicked out of a U.S. post office located in the same building as a Minnesota mosque.

Sporting a Christian Crusader shirt, Hoch went with online journalist Zak X on Friday to the USPS facility at 3300 Plymouth Blvd in Plymouth, Minnesota, the same address as the Northwest Islamic Community Center.

The pair posted a 27-minute video of their encounter with postal workers, security guards and eventually local police, who issued them citations for trespassing.

"I am not comfortable at all," said Tina, a postal worker who phoned police as she was being recorded. "They're refusing to leave. They got a camera in my face."

An apparent security guard told Hoch: "This is their property, the mosque. ... You're being trespassed."

"From public property?" Hoch asked.

"This is not public property. It's private," the guard claimed.

"It's a post office!" Hoch fired back.

Later, a police officer told Hoch, "The post office is asking us to ask you to leave."

Hoch wondered aloud: "Why can these [other] people be here? Did they get permission?"

"They're not causing a problem," the officer replied.

Hoch asked: "What are we doing that's causing a problem?"

"They're saying you're causing a disturbance. They have the right to trespass you. So you gotta leave."

At one point, as the Islamic center was apparently holding a prayer service, orange cones were put in place to block anyone from entering the property.

"We called the police and they laughed because they know the police will not do anything about it even though it violates the law," explained Hoch.

"The police don't care, and if you're a police officer, you better get your sh together because people are gonna start turning on you, and it's going to be a very dark day for you if you don't start enforcing the law."

Actor and director Kevin Sorbo shared the video with his 2.6 million followers on X, and said: This is treason. USPS inside of a mosque. The people who count mail-in ballots. But our elections are 'safe and secure.'"

"What is happening in Plymouth MN? People should lose their jobs on this set-up of a postal office on private mosque property. End it now! Separation of Church and State!"

"This is crazy. How can a private entity own a public business? How can they be told to leave just for asking questions? This is a serious problem especially if they handle voting ballots."

"Mail-in 'votes' is rife with fraud. It starts with trusting chain-of-custody of ballots to the USPS workers. Anyone who has any common sense at all, and is not biased can understand that simple concept."

"I would BET that there are OTHER set ups like this around the country in Communist-Jihadist-Globalist democrat controlled cities and states. I would also bet that the main reason for doing this is to CHEAT IN OUR ELECTIONS WITH MAIL IN BALLOTS. President Trump and any federal agencies that SHOULD investigate this unholy, totally suspect rental arrangement, such as the FBI, investigate this IMMEDIATELY. If this arrangement ISN'T ILLEGAL, it SHOULD be."

"I can't believe this. Why is the country allowed to be filled with SO many people who want to destroy it!! Why can't we effectively fight this sh? No country will survive that allows this to happen."

"If the mosque was substituted for a church, there'd be hundreds of protestors outside, particularly blue-haired Karens."

What is your opinion of a U.S. post office operating in the same building as an Islamic mosque?
