Egyptian-born surgeon Adam Hamawy is headed to Congress. This is the same man who spent years in the inner circle of Omar Abdel-Rahman, the Blind Sheikh, whose followers bombed the World Trade Center and plotted to destroy the Lincoln and Holland Tunnels, the United Nations, and the FBI's New York office.

Hamawy traveled with the Sheikh, attended the 1991 Detroit conference where Abdel-Rahman declared jihad "the pinnacle of Islam," called for the conquest of the land of the infidels, and branded Egypt's president "the loyal dog of America." Under oath, Hamawy tried to dismiss it as a harmless "Islamic economy" conference – until prosecutors put the transcript in front of him and his story collapsed.

He also volunteered with the Benevolence International Foundation, later shut down by the U.S. government as a logistical front for Al-Qaeda.

Tonight that man will receive classified intelligence briefings and cast votes on America's counterterrorism funding.

This is not an isolated race. New York City already fell to Zohran Mamdani. CAIR, Emgage, mosque networks, and progressive allies have been systematically building the machine. New Jersey's 12th is the latest prize.

The Red-Green Alliance is capturing the New York–New Jersey corridor one district at a time while America sleeps. The question is no longer if. It is how far we will allow this to go – and whether anyone in power is finally willing to treat it as the national security crisis it is.

On the eve of the primary, RAIR delivered a blistering warning: Adam Hamawy lied under oath to protect the Blind Sheikh, attended jihad conferences with him, and now seeks a seat in the U.S. House where he will handle classified intelligence and counterterrorism policy. America cannot afford to look the other way.

Hamas-Tied Network Behind New Jersey Islamic School That Broke Local Laws (RAIR TV) – October 23, 2026

RAIR documents the same Passaic County network centered on Imam Mohammad Qatanani and CAIR that celebrated Adam Hamawy's primary win with chants of "Allahu Akbar." The infrastructure that is building Islamic schools and political power is the same one advancing candidates with terror-tied histories into Congress.These reports form a clear continuum: the same networks, the same playbook, the same refusal by mainstream institutions to confront the national security implications of the Red-Green Alliance's electoral advances.
